

2.16.1 APPENDIX - HISTORIC ARTWORKS

AW1 Larkin's view of Monterey in 1842 showing the "lumbered up" north and south ends of Casa Soberanes. (Van Nostrand 1968:66).

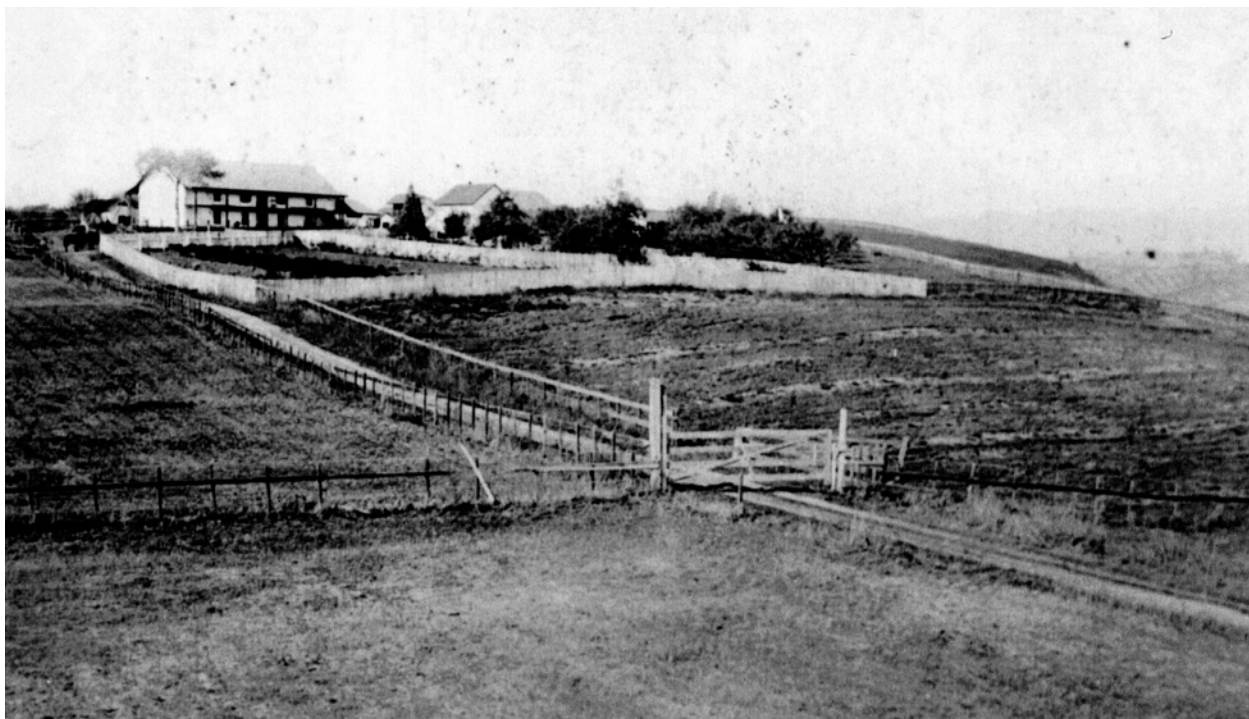

AW2 Larkin's key to the 1842 harbor view of Monterey (Van Nostrand 1968:67).

HP1 Hansen family in front of Rancho San Andres Castro Adobe “lumbered up” on the south end. Note solid shutters on front, wood floor under balcony, low roof pitch of original roof, high balcony balustrade. Barns are visible at right. Circa 1890. Myrtle Jensen Collection.

HP2 Hansen Family at Rancho San Andres Castro Adobe with picket fence, poultry yard, wood gutter at rear eave, balustrade removed, roofline and posts changed, wall anchors in place. Circa 1895. Pajaro Valley Historical Association.

HP3 Rancho San Andres Castro Adobe with 39 acre parcel, lot #3. Note gate, fencing, fields, barns & second house. Circa 1906. Myrtle Jensen Collection.

HP4 Close up of church reunion. Rancho San Andres Castro Adobe with wood floor, woven wire in place of wooden balustrade. 1915. Elizabeth Potter Collection.

HP5 Church reunion at Rancho San Andres Castro Adobe. Government anchors in place, balcony support, woven wire mesh guard rail. Direction of stair reversed from earlier photos. 1915. Elizabeth Potter Collection.

HP6 Rancho San Andres Castro Adobe with flower garden and Grapes. Wall anchors visible. Note stair run reversal. 1930s. UCSC Special Collections.

HP7 Rancho San Andres Castro Adobe with deteriorated roof, vines on balcony and corn field. 1934. Photograph Tom K. Evans. (Atkinson 1934: frontispiece). UCSC Special Collections.

HP8 South gable end of Rancho San Andres Castro Adobe with deteriorated roof & vines on balcony. 1934. Photograph Tom K. Evans. Pajaro Valley Historical Association.

HP9 Abandoned Rancho San Andres Castro Adobe with apricot drying racks. Post 1906. Pajaro Valley Historical Association.

HP10 Abandoned Rancho San Andres Castro Adobe with apricot orchard and drying racks. Post 1906. Pajaro Valley Historical Association.

HP11 South gable end and west elevation of abandoned Rancho San Andres Castro Adobe with ladder. Circa 1937-39. Pajaro Valley Historical Association.

HP12 Abandoned Rancho San Andres Castro Adobe. Note sheds added to cocina. Circa 1937-39. Pajaro Valley Historical Association.

HP13 Abandoned Rancho San Andres Castro Adobe. 1930's. UCSC Special Collections.

HP14 Abandoned Rancho San Andres Castro Adobe with apricot orchard. 1930's. UCSC Special Collections.

HP15 Frank Mello (according to news paper article), in front of abandoned Rancho San Andres Castro Adobe with ladder. Circa 1937-39. Pajaro Valley Historical Association.

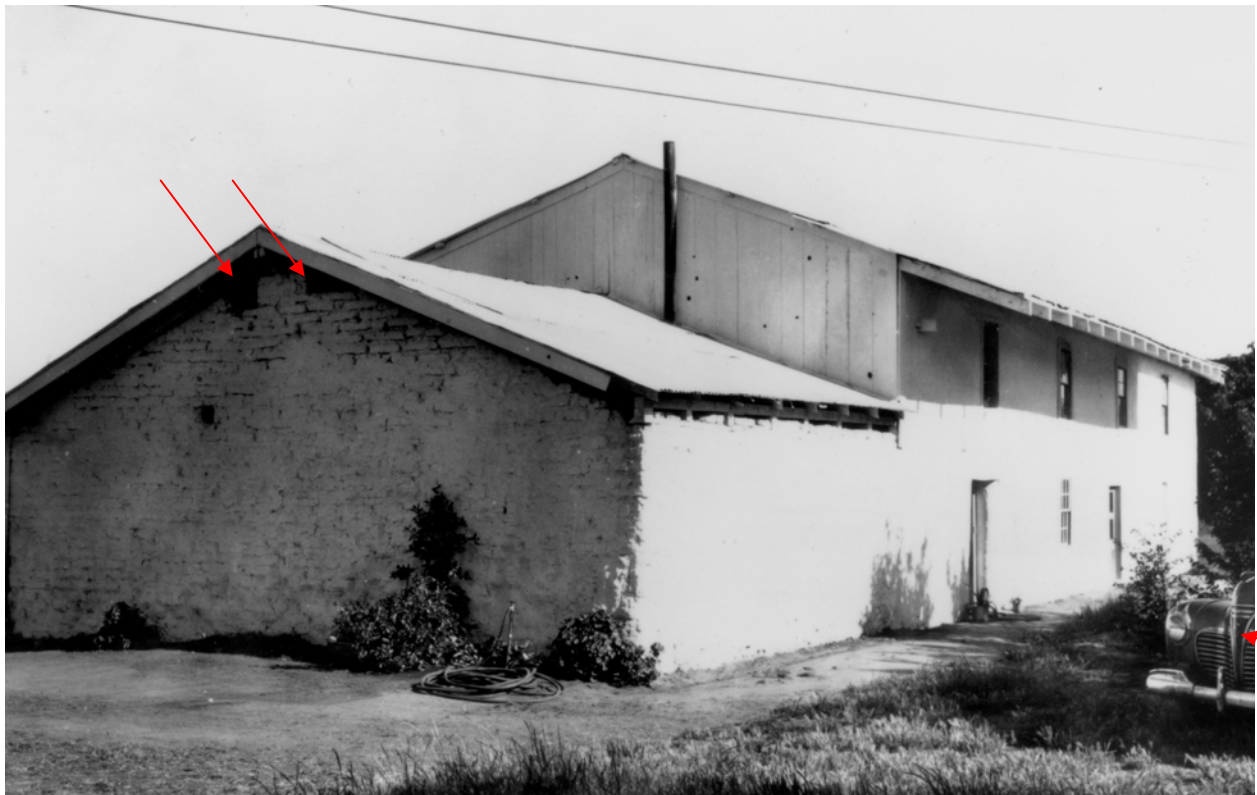

HP16 Abandoned Rancho San Andres Castro Adobe with ladder.. 1930's Pajaro Valley Historical Association.

HP18 South Gable end of Rancho San Andres Castro Adobe with exposed adobe and low roof pitch. Apricot trees to the west. Circa 1941. Southwest Museum Collection.

HP17 Façade of Rancho San Andres Castro Adobe with low roof pitch and Frank Mello's 1939 metal roof. Southwest Museum Collection.

HP19 North Gable end and west elevation of Rancho San Andres Castro Adobe. Roof overhang cantilevered, no support posts. Note original vents, 1941 Plymouth at right and overhead electrical wires. Circa 1941. Southwest Museum Collection.

HP20 West Elevation of Rancho San Andres Castro Adobe. No roof support posts New door at south end. Circa 1941. Southwest Museum Collection.

HP22 Rancho San Andres Castro Adobe Façade. Note doors, window sash and trim painted dark. Stair case reversed. Circa 1966. Elizabeth Potter Collection.

HP23 Rancho San Andres Castro Adobe façade showing balcony and staircase parallel to building façade with direction of run the same as in earliest photos. 1988. Edna E. Kimbro, photographer.

HP24 Rancho San Andres Castro Adobe with wisteria. Note doors, window sash and trim painted white. Roof support posts reintroduced matching those of Hansens in 1880s at the front. 1990 Edna E. Kimbro photographer.

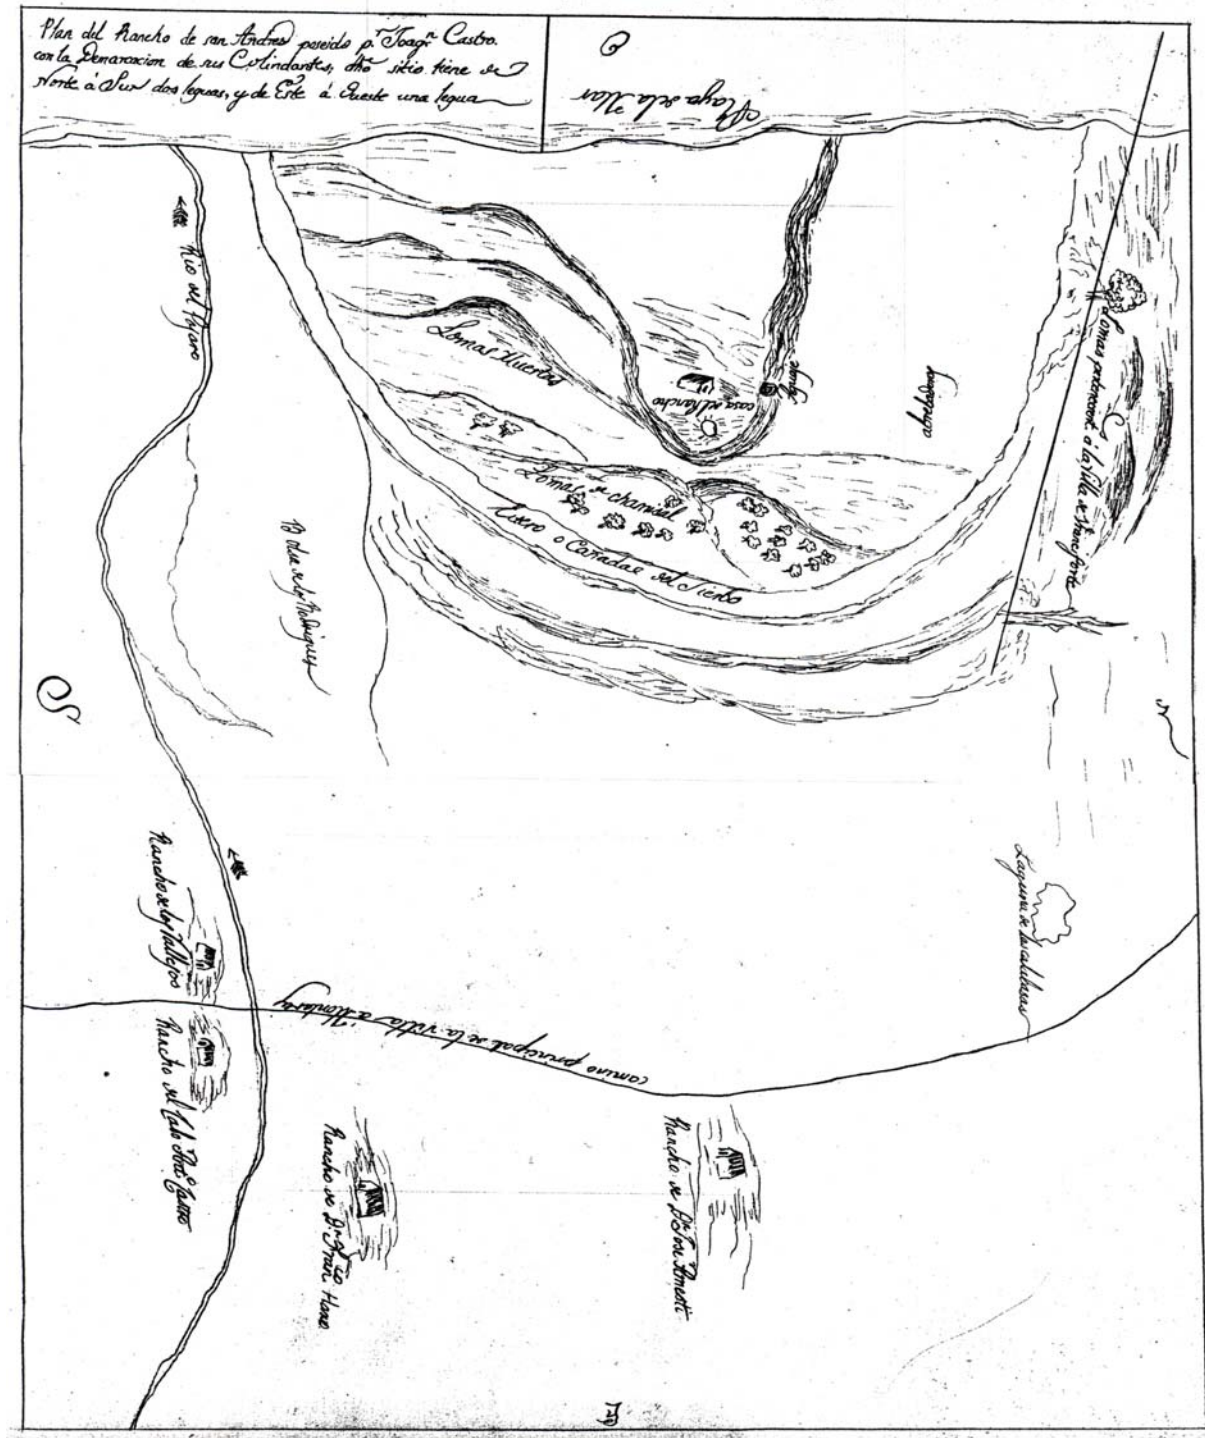

HP25 Rancho San Andres Castro Adobe interior Room 103 looking south. 1971 Bangs photograph.

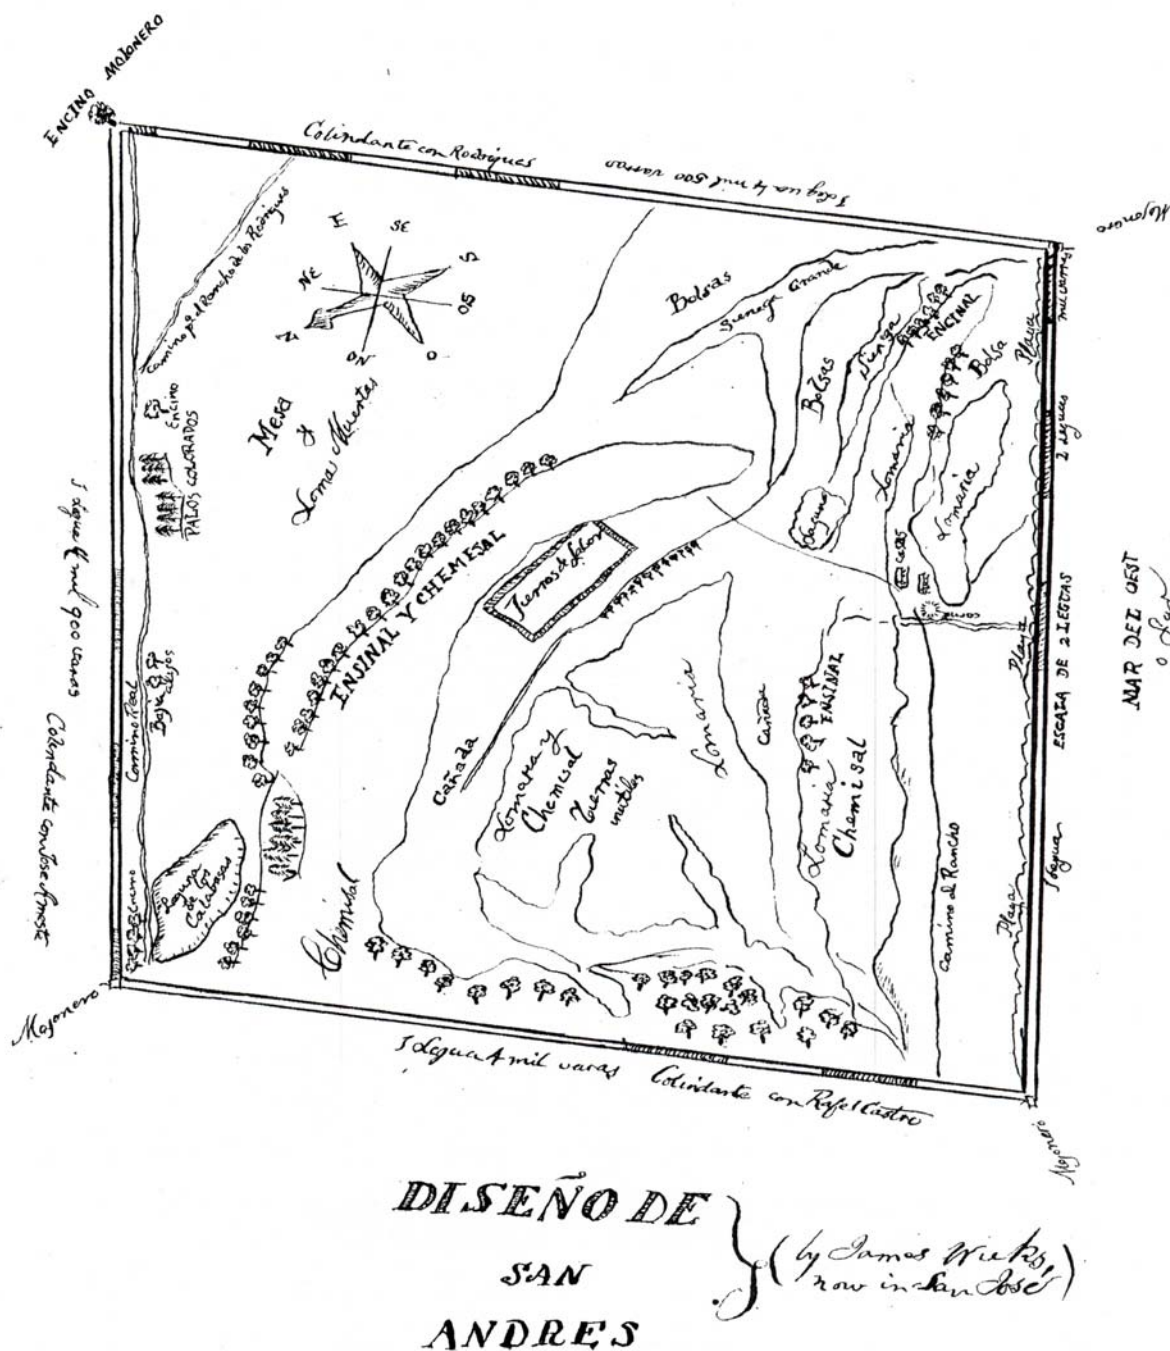

HP26 Rancho San Andres Castro Adobe interior Room 103. 1971 Bangs photograph.

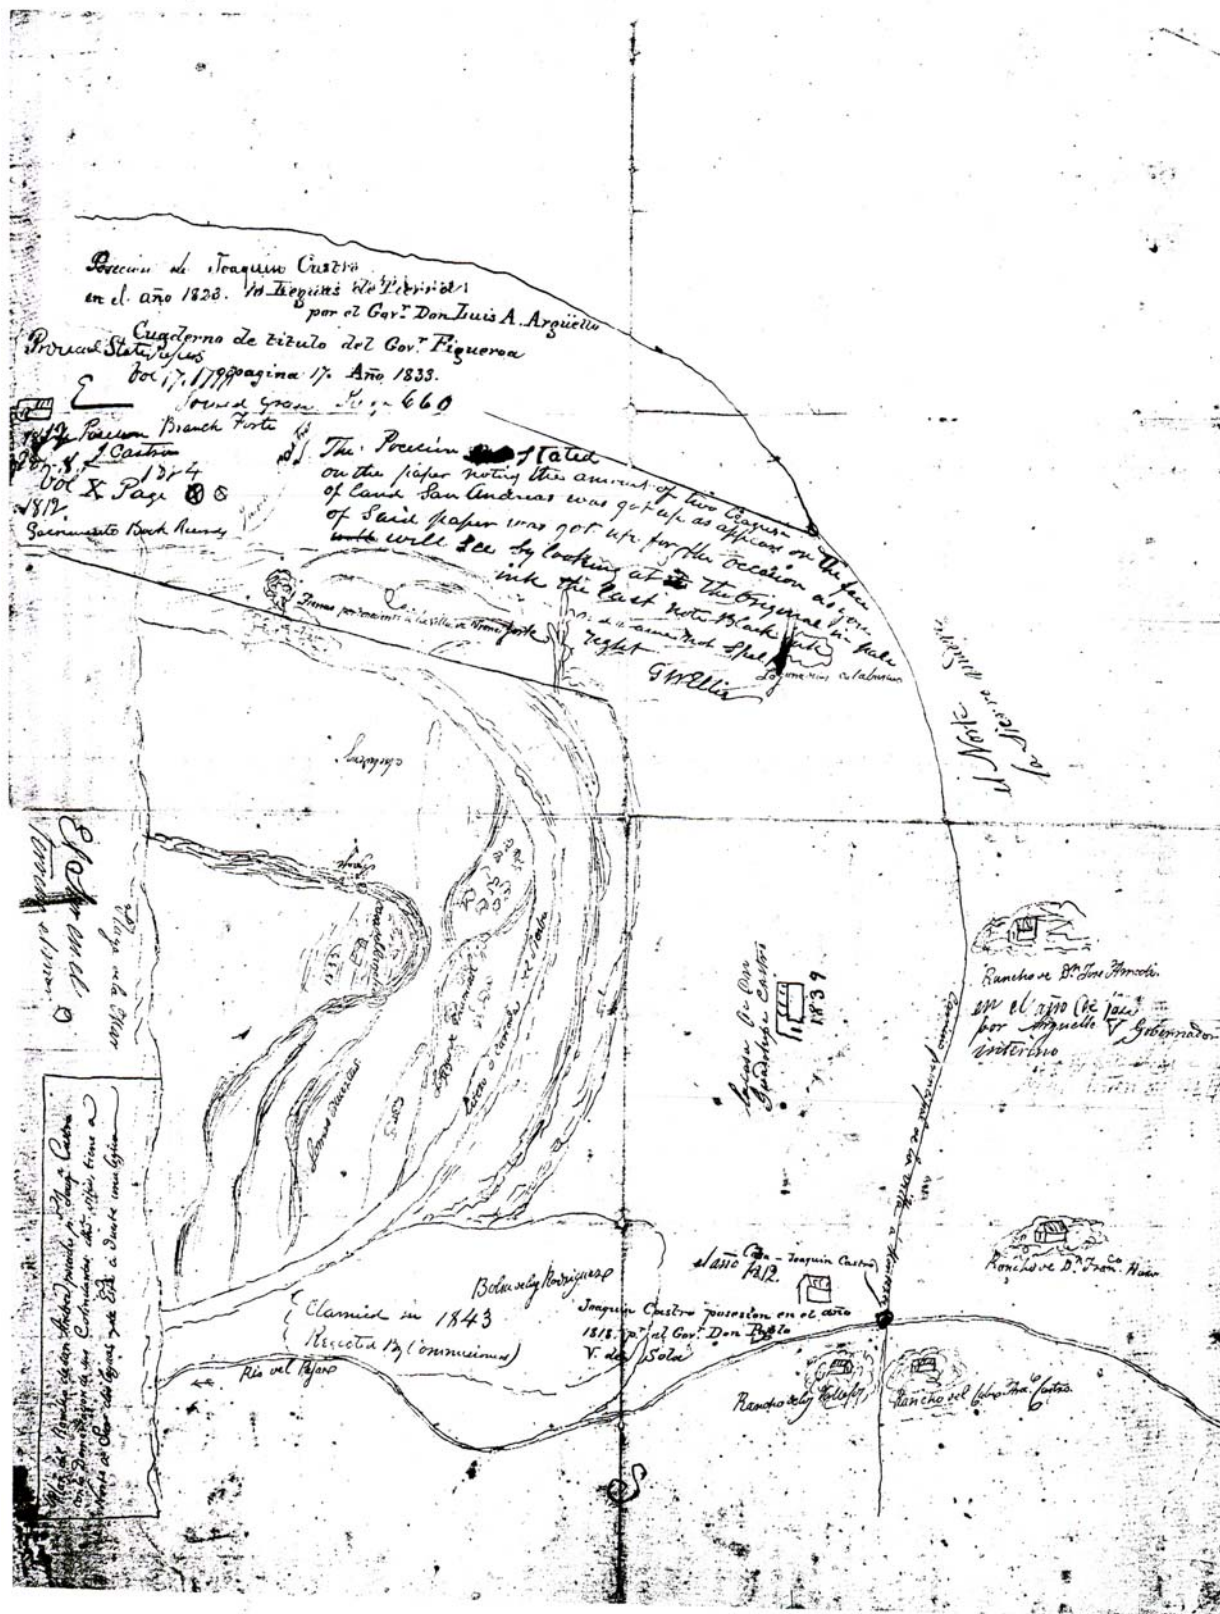

2.16.3 APPENDIX - MAPS

2.16.3.1 Appendix - Map – Copy of Rancho San Andres Diseño #1, 17 August 1830 by Robert Becker. Castro Adobe Collection.

2.16.3.3 Appendix - Map - Rancho San Andres Diseño #3, annotated version of Diseno #1. From original in Rowland Collection, UCSC Special Collections.

2.16.3.4 Appendix - Map –Survey of Rancho San Andres showing Jose Castro's house and the embarcadero. Castro Adobe Collection.

